CONSUMER ALERT - PROTECT YOURSELF!

With so many high-profile and popular events coming to Wharton Center, including Hamilton, we have found some of our patrons are being exploited by ticket resellers. In some cases our tickets are being marketed on websites even BEFORE tickets go on sale to the general public, at prices far above the price you will pay through Wharton Center’s official channels: whartoncenter.com and 1-800-WHARTON.

If you purchase tickets from another source you might pay too much or purchase invalid tickets. You also may not be able to get help from Wharton Center’s ticketing staff if you have a ticket problem, because there will be no in-house record of your transaction. As a result, we cannot contact you if there is a change of performance time, traffic notices, or to provide you with any other urgent information.

Avoid unscrupulous ticket resellers:

- Bookmark our website, whartoncenter.com, for ticket and show information.
- Sign up for our eClub on our website to receive information directly from Wharton Center.
- Note our actual site name. Fraudulent websites may use a version or part of our name, or a misspelling of Wharton Center in their web address.

We urge you to protect yourself by purchasing directly from the Official Authorized Source for Wharton Center tickets – buy your tickets at www.whartoncenter.com; through 1-800-WHARTON (1-800-942-7866); or at the Auto-Owners Insurance Ticket Office at Wharton Center.

If you think you have been duped by a fraudulent ticket reseller, you can file a Consumer Complaint Form with the Michigan Attorney General’s Office. Forms are located at: https://secure.ag.state.mi.us/complaints/consumer.aspx

With thoughtful and creative estate planning, you can provide future support to Wharton Center for Performing Arts. We invite and encourage you to contact the Development Office at (517) 353-4640 to explore estate planning strategies.
Endowments provide a foundation of stability and support. Gifts to endowments are made with the understanding that the principal is continually preserved and the total amount of the gift is invested. Each year, only a portion of the interest earned is spent while the remainder reverts to principal. In this respect, an endowment is a perpetual gift.

Wharton Center gratefully acknowledges those individuals/organizations that have funded named endowments through gifts of cash or their estate plans.
