

GROUP TICKETS & EVENTS AT WHARTON CENTER

CREATE SPECIAL EXPERIENCES for your clients, employees, or guests. Sponsors enjoy priority seating, group discounts on most shows, and reduced rates on reception spaces. We handle the details so you can focus on hosting and enjoying your event. Space and seating are limited. Book early by following the steps below.

GROUP TICKETS:

- The Wharton Center development team will connect with you when we announce Wharton Center's 2026-2027 Broadway season on March 3 and again when we announce our Performing Arts season in late April to discuss your interest in purchasing group tickets and/or hosting an event.
- Group ticket request(s) for Broadway performances are due prior to April 1. Performing Arts group ticket requests are due prior to June 1. Orders submitted after these dates are subject to best available seating at the time order is received.
- All orders should be 10 tickets or more. Invoices will be sent from the Wharton Center Ticket Office to contact on file by July 1. You can adjust your number of tickets before August 14.
- Final payment for all orders will be due by Friday, September 4.

HOSTING RECEPTIONS:

- Wharton Center's professional staff will handle all the details for your pre-performance reception, from set-up to catering to curtain time.
- We suggest booking your reception space between April 10 – July 30. Space is available to sponsors on a first come first served basis. The Wharton Center development team will confirm availability and reservations with our staff.
- Our Event Services team will contact you 3-4 weeks prior to your event to discuss details regarding catering, décor, flow of event, etc. With so many events at the center, please be patient as our staff works to make sure each client's needs are met.
- Cost estimates and catering proposals will be sent ahead of time for your approval. Final invoice is sent after the event concludes.
- Sponsors hosting receptions may choose to cover the cost of parking for their guests. Your guests will use your company's name to enter the ramp at no cost to them. The first 15 guests are complimentary, and any guests beyond that will be on your invoice. This is available to sponsors when hosting receptions and not on all ticket orders.
