More and more of our patrons are being exploited by unscrupulous ticket resellers. Oftentimes our tickets are being marketed on secondary ticket sites before the operator of the site has even purchased tickets – and they are being sold at prices far above the price you will pay by purchasing your tickets through Wharton Center.

If you purchase tickets from another source, you might pay too much for your tickets, or may even pay for invalid tickets. You also may not be able to get help from Wharton Center’s ticketing staff if you have a problem; there will be no in-house record of your transaction, and we cannot contact you if there is a change of performance time, traffic notices, or to provide any other special information.

To avoid being ensnared by unscrupulous ticket resellers:

- Bookmark our website, www.whartoncenter.com, for ticket and show information.
- Sign up for our eClub on our website to receive information directly from Wharton Center.
- Note our actual site name. Fraudulent websites may use a version or part of our name, or a misspelling of Wharton Center in their web address.
- Download the Wharton Center app on your smart phone.

We urge you to protect yourself by purchasing directly from the Official Authorized Source for Wharton Center tickets – buy your tickets at www.whartoncenter.com; by phone at 1-800-WHARTON (1-800-942-7866); or at the Auto-Owners Insurance Ticket Office at Wharton Center.

If you think you have been duped by a fraudulent ticket reseller, you can file a Consumer Complaint Form with the Michigan Attorney General’s Office. Forms are located at: https://secure.ag.state.mi.us/complaints/consumer.aspx

Wharton Center gratefully thanks those who have chosen to remember and support the performing arts through a charitable bequest in their estate plans.

With thoughtful and creative estate planning, you can provide future support to Wharton Center for Performing Arts. We invite and encourage you to contact the Development Office at (517) 353-4640 to explore estate planning strategies.
Endowments provide a foundation of stability and support. Gifts to endowments are made with the understanding that the principal is continually preserved and the total amount of the gift is invested. Each year, only a portion of the interest earned is spent while the remainder reverts to principal. In this respect, an endowment is a perpetual gift.

Wharton Center gratefully acknowledges those individuals/organizations that have funded named endowments through gifts of cash or their estate plans.
