

SeatGeek

- SeatGeek is the official ticketing partner of the Wharton Center Ticket Office.
- They are the only ticket reseller Wharton Center works with.
- MSU Athletics ticket office has successfully partnered with SeatGeek and their success helped us decide to partner with them.
- Wharton Center's integration with SeatGeek guarantees that all tickets listed on SeatGeek are verified and trusted.
- SeatGeek uses Deal Score technology to recommend optimal pricing for selling your ticket.
- When tickets sell, they are automatically reissued to the buyer, making the process seamless and hassle-free.
- Ticket sellers will receive payment within 48 hours of their ticket sale via direct deposit.
- Only events presented by Wharton Center will be available on SeatGeek. This does not include comp, youth, student, Arts Within Reach, or discounted tickets.
- Start your ticket-buying journey at whartoncenter.com. If you don't find the seats you want, visit seatgeek.com.
- SeatGeek FAQ - <https://support.seatgeek.com/hc/en-us/articles/16111126375059-Selling-College-Sports-Performing-Arts-and-Arena-or-Venues-tickets-FAQ>
- Once a ticket is transferred to sell on SeatGeek, the Wharton Center Ticket Office will be unable to assist the patron. They should contact SeatGeek for help.

How to sell your tickets on SeatGeek

1. Log into whartoncenter.com/myaccount
2. Click "Sell Your Tickets on SeatGeek".
3. Select the tickets you want to list and continue to SeatGeek.
4. Sign in to SeatGeek or sign up as a new user.
5. Set your price and list your ticket.
6. Questions – contact SeatGeek at seatgeek.com/help or 888.497.4335.

