KEVIN BOZEMAN did not rise to comedic fame in a traditional manner. In 1999, six years after finishing his collegiate basketball career at Division III Whitewater college, Kevin was inspired by Def Comedy Jam and challenged by his roommate to have a crack at stand-up. Kevin headed to Madison, WI and took his chances at open-mic night.

Fast forward to the present, Kevin is still going on stage bringing relatable laughs and happy memories to millions of people across the country. With a smooth and clever style, a great smile, and a contagious laugh, Kevin has been entertaining in clubs and colleges from east to west coast. In 2000, he won the Midwest region of HBO's Comedy Competition and flew to Los Angeles to compete as a finalist. He performed on Comedy Central's Premium Blend in 2003 and finished in second place at the Boston Comedy Competition in 2005. Kevin was a semi-finalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing in 2015, along with other appearances on CBS and Fox. His Dry Bar Comedy Special, "Clean & Unfiltered" has over 7 million views.

Kevin also hosts his own podcast series Boze Knows-The Ball Hog Podcast where he gives input on sport teams, coaches, and players with hilarious, quick-witted remarks.
