BILL BLAGG has captivated audiences around the world with his mesmerizing performances and mind-bending tricks. Born and raised in the small town of Zion, IL, Bill's natural affinity for magic allowed him to embark on a journey to become one of the most captivating touring magicians and illusionists of our time.

Bill's life took a magical turn when he received three treasured books from his great-grandfather. These books, known as the Harlan Tarbell course in magic, were filled with secrets, techniques, and the wonders of magic, opening the gate into a world of enchantment and mystery.

His new show, "Family Magic," is designed to engage and entertain audiences of all ages. This spellbinding performance combines live interaction, comedy, and incredible visual magic to create an unforgettable experience.

In the 18 years of dedication to his craft, Bill has left audiences captivated, motivated, and amazed. Bill strives to pay homage to his great grandfather and the books that changed his life through his mystical storytelling. His goal is not only to entertain and amaze, but to inspire others, just as he was inspired.

Bill is a renowned educator with his touring arts in education programs "The Science of Magic" and "Magic in Motion" where K-12 students discover how the magic of science and the science of magic can create the impossible. Annually, his programs educate and inspire over 100,000 students across the country.
